PROGRAM INFORMATION

You may use individualized coursework (up to 6 units in POS 408, 485, and 497) toward your American Political Studies Degree with the following conditions. You must obtain prior written approval from your American Political Studies faculty advisor. You must use only individualized coursework with a POS prefix. There may be exceptional circumstances, when with your advisor's prior approval you may use individualized units from other departments toward your degree requirements. Any such coursework counts toward the 6 unit maximum for individualized coursework. If you take more than 6 units of individualized coursework the additional units will count as general elective credit. Individualized coursework includes the following: POS408 (Field Work 1-12 units maximum) POS485 (Undergraduate Research 1-6 units maximum) POS 497 (Independent Study 1-6 units maximum) or POS466 (Legislative Internship 1-12 units maximum).

Of the 54 units required for your major 36 units must be taken at the 300 or 400 level coursework. A grade of D in any major course is not acceptable for major credit. Although you are not required to retake a required course in which you earn a D, you must complete 54 units in the major with a grade of C or better in order to graduate with a Bachelor of Science in American Political Studies.
