- This degree progression plan is to be used in conjunction with the academic catalog and degree progress report.
- Students should see an academic advisor regularly to confirm their academic progress.
- Students must see an academic advisor before enrollment for the 7th term in preparation for graduation.
- Many courses have pre-requisites. Please check the academic catalog for pre-requisite and placement information.

PROGRAM INFORMATION

This degree requires you to select an emphasis from the following: Applied Indigenous Cultural Resource Management, Applied Indigenous Economic Development, Applied Indigenous Environmental Management, Applied Indigenous Environmental Science, Applied Indigenous Knowledge, Applied Indigenous Policy Administration, and Applied Indigenous Politics and Movements. See the Catalog and consult your Applied Indigenous Studies Faculty Advisor in your emphasis selection.

Individualized coursework (AIS408 and 497) may be used toward your Applied Indigenous Studies Extended Degree with the following conditions. You must obtain prior written approval from your Applied Indigenous Studies faculty advisor and the Applied Indigenous Studies department chair. Only individualized coursework with an AIS prefix may be used. Individualized coursework includes the following: AIS408 (Field Work 1-12 units maximum) and AIS 497 (Independent Study 1-6 units maximum). Students are highly recommended to plan on enrolling in AIS408 during the summer after speaking with their faculty advisor.
You may also use AIS299, AIS399 or AIS499 toward your degree. These are topics courses that provide in-depth study of an aspect, concept, or problem within a program of study. May be repeated for maximum of 6 units of credit. A grade of C or better is required in all coursework (66-69 units) applied toward this major to earn your degree in Applied Indigenous Studies.
