PROGRAM INFORMATION

You may use individualized coursework toward your International Affairs Degree with prior written approval from your Political Science faculty advisor and the Political Science department. Individualized coursework includes the following: POS 408 (Field Work 1-12 units maximum), POS 485 (Undergraduate Research 1-6 units maximum), POS 497 (Independent Study 1-6 units maximum) and POS 466 (Legislative Internship 1-12 units maximum). While POS 408 and POS 466 may be taken for up to 12 units only 6 units may be used toward your major requirements. Additional units over 6 units may be used to fulfill general electives. You take 15 units of interdisciplinary courses chosen from the designated list in the catalog. You are required to take 4 semesters of a language other than English and 6 units of language at the upper division level (300 or 400 numbered courses).

All 54 units required for the major must be earned with a grade of "C" or higher. While you are not required to repeat a class where you earned a "D" you must have the total of 54 units of International Affairs courses with a grade of "C" or above. 36 units of the required 54 units must be taken at the 300 level or higher.

In addition, please be aware that you can repeat topics courses, which vary in content, for up to 6 units of credit in the political science component. Obtain your advisor's approval for the particular topics course content. Note: POS 220 may not be used to fulfill requirements for your Political Science degree.
