- Students must submit graduation application during the 7th term.

PROGRAM INFORMATION

This plan includes studies in the use of electronic media in the general fields of communication, which encompasses the preparation, production, transmission, and regulation of messages to large audiences as well as to smaller groups and individuals. There are opportunities for hands-on experience in a variety of in-house as well as broadcast and non-broadcast functions. You will be educated about the responsibilities entertainment and news producers have toward themselves and society, as well as the creative, aesthetic, business and technical aspects of film and the electronic media, and its history and influence upon our culture.

Our faculty members strive to acquaint you with radio, television, Internet, film and other electronic media, including their organization, structure, and function as well as historical development and social aspects to provide you with the necessary background and conceptual tools to function and create programming in entertainment, news, multimedia, radio, television, corporate and industrial video, and satellite and cable communication. Be aware that some courses in your major may have prerequisites that you must complete before taking those courses. Courses for your major are offered in specific sequence and you must complete the communication core and required prerequisite courses in sequence to avoid a delay in graduation. You must earn a grade of C or better in all courses required for this Electronic Media and Film major.

You must complete the Minor in International Communication or a minor of at least 18 units from those described in this catalog. In consultation with your advisor, you should select a minor that's appropriate for your career aspirations and educational needs. Your minor advisor will advise you about this part of your academic plan. You must earn a grade of "C" or better in the School of Communication Core (COM 101 and COM 200), Freshman Composition (ENG 105 or equivalent transfer ENG coursework) and Liberal Studies Mathematics Foundation Course.

BE AWARE THAT THE FINAL RESPONSIBILITY OF SELECTING COURSES RESTS WITH YOU. IT IS YOUR FULL RESPONSIBILITY TO MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF YOUR COURSE OF STUDY, IN THEIR PROPER ORDER, SO YOU DON'T FIND YOURSELF IN YOUR SENIOR YEAR INELIGIBLE FOR GRADUATION.
