PROGRAM INFORMATION

To earn the extended Degree in Public Planning you must chose a focus from the following options: geographic information systems, sustainable development, tourism and leisure planning and custom planning. See your public planning faculty advisor when making this selection to determine if there are pre-requisites you must take to prepare you for required courses.

You may use individualized coursework (PL 408, 485, and 497) toward your Public Planning Degree with prior written approval from your public planning faculty advisor and the department chair. You must use only individualized coursework with a PL prefix.

Individualized coursework includes the following: PL 408 (Field Work 1-12 units maximum), PL 485 (Undergraduate Research 1-6 units maximum), and PL 497 (Independent Study 1-6 units maximum). Consult your Public Planning faculty advisor when selecting from these individualized courses. Some required courses or options for requirements may require pre-requisites. Check with the Catalog or your public planning faculty advisor.

You must have an overall or cumulative grade point average of 2.5 and you must have a grade of "C" or higher in all courses applied to your major to earn your Public Planning degree.
