Almost every significant thinker in Western philosophy has written about death. Far from being definitive the views about "what comes after" are diverse and complex. The philosophy of death relates to practical, ethical, and linguistic problems associated with death, dying, and the dead.

A stimulating conversation among members of the Sedona community over a light luncheon

 NORTHERN ARIZONA

Philosophy in the Public Interest

Among other things, we will consider:

What happens when we die?

Metempsychosis (transmigration)

or

Utter Annihilation

or

Something Else
