- This 8-term plan is to be used in conjunction with the academic catalog and degree progress report.
- Students should see an academic advisor regularly to confirm their academic progress.

  Students must see an academic advisor before enrollment for the 7th term in preparation for graduation.

PROGRAM INFORMATION

You may use individualized coursework (AIS408 and 497) toward your Applied Indigenous Studies Degree with the following conditions. You must obtain prior written approval from your Applied Indigenous Studies faculty advisor and the Applied Indigenous Studies Department. You must use only individualized coursework with an AIS prefix. Any such coursework counts toward the 6 unit maximum of individualized coursework. If you take more than 6 units of individualized coursework the additional units will count as general elective credit. Individualized coursework includes the following: AIS408 (Field Work 1-12 units maximum) and AIS 497 (Independent Study 1-6 units maximum).

You may also use AIS299, AIS399 or AIS499 toward your degree. These are topics classes that provide in-depth study of an aspect, concept, or problem within a program of study. May be repeated for up to 6 units of credit.
