PROGRAM INFORMATION

You may use individualized coursework (up to 6 units) toward your criminal justice degree with the following conditions. You must consult with your Criminal Justice advisor. You must use only individualized coursework with a CJ prefix. Any such coursework counts toward the 6 unit maximum for individualized coursework. If you take more than 6 units of individualized coursework the additional units will count as general elective credit. Individualized coursework includes the following: CJ 408 (Internship 1-12 units maximum), CJ 485 (Undergraduate Research 1-6 units maximum), CJ 497 (Independent Study 1-6 unit maximum) or CJ 466 (Legislative Internship 1-12 units maximum).

You may design a track in criminal justice coursework specific to your career goals. It is strongly recommended that you speak to an academic advisor early in your academic career in designing your track.

You must have a "C" or better in all Criminal Justice courses used to complete the major requirements. You may apply up to 15 units of Criminal Justice or related coursework taken at other institutions toward your Criminal Justice degree at NAU.
