PROGRAM INFORMATION

Our journalism plans are designed to prepare you for a professional career in journalism and to provide you with an understanding of society and its institutions including arts, sciences, literature, history, and technology through a focus on the liberal arts.

Courses in your major may have prerequisites that you must complete before taking those courses.

Courses for your major may be offered in specific sequence. You must complete the School of Communication Core and any required prerequisite courses when they are offered to avoid being unable to enroll in a required course for which you have not completed the prerequisites. Failure to take courses in sequence may delay completion of your plan.

As a Journalism major, you benefit from an integrated approach to communication that develops your professional skills and focuses on ethics and freedom of expression. Our academic plans reflect the latest developments in the profession, and you have the opportunity to attain valuable hands-on experience with university media and professional internships.

Our Journalism plan is affiliated with the Southwest Education Council for Journalism and Mass Communication. Your professors are associated with such organizations as the Society of Professional Journalists, the Society of News Design, the Arizona Newspaper Association, the National Newspaper Association, the First Amendment Congress, and the International Association of Weekly Newspaper Editors.

You must earn a grade of "C" or better in the School of Communication Core (COM 101 and COM 200), Freshman Composition (ENG 105) and Liberal Studies Mathematics Foundation Course. You must earn a "C" or better in all courses required for the Bachelor of Science in Journalism: Environmental Communication major to satisfy the requirements and complete this degree.

BE AWARE THAT THE FINAL RESPONSIBILITY OF SELECTING COURSES RESTS WITH YOU. IT IS YOUR FULL RESPONSIBILITY TO MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF YOUR COURSE OF STUDY, IN THEIR PROPER ORDER, SO YOU DON'T FIND YOURSELF IN YOUR SENIOR YEAR INELIGIBLE FOR GRADUATION.
