PROGRAM INFORMATION

To earn the extended Degree in Parks and Recreation Management you must chose a focus from the following options: Community and Commercial Recreation, Individualized, Interpretation, Outdoor Education, Outdoor Leader, Outdoor Recreation Planner, Park Protection, Tourism, and Wildland Recreation Management. See your Parks and Recreation Management faculty advisor when making this selection.

You may be required to take classes during the summer to fulfill the sequence requirements. Consult your Parks and Recreation Faculty in scheduling your classes.

You may use additional individualized coursework (PRM 497) toward your Parks and Recreation Management Degree but you must obtain prior written approval from your Parks and Recreation Management faculty advisor and the Department of Geography, Planning and Recreation. You must use only individualized coursework with a PRM prefix. Note that you may take PRM 398, 399, or 499 for 1-3 units maximum. Consult with your Parks and Recreation Management faculty advisor on selecting from these individualized courses.

This degree is accredited by the National Recreation and Park Association and the American Association of Leisure and Recreation.

You must have an overall or cumulative grade point average of 2.5 and you must have a grade of "C" or higher in all lower –and upper-division core courses, including repeated courses to graduate.

You must have 27 units of the 56 units of major requirements taken at NAU to earn your degree.
