PROGRAM INFORMATION

You may use individualized coursework toward your Political Science Degree with prior written approval from your Political Science faculty advisor and the Political Science department chair and may use only individualized coursework with a POS prefix. You cannot take more than 6 units of POS 485 or POS 497. Individualized coursework includes the following: POS 408 (Field Work 1-12 units maximum), POS 485 (Undergraduate Research 1-6 units maximum), POS 497 (Independent Study 1-6 units maximum) and POS 466 (Legislative Internship 1-12 units maximum). Additional units over 6 units of POS 466 and POS 408 may be used to fulfill general electives.

All 39 units required for the major must be earned with a grade of "C" or higher. While you are not required to repeat a class where you earned a "D" you must have the total of 39 units of Political Science courses with a grade of "C" or above.

If you take an area studies or topics course that's repeatable, you may take it more than once with different content and apply it to your major requirement more than once. If a course is an option in the core but you take some other course to satisfy that core requirement, you may still take the optional course and apply it to this 15-unit requirement. Note that POS 220 may not be used to fulfill requirements for your Political Science degree.
