In addition students may work with Student Life and/or Housing and Residence Life to receive interim and/or permanent remedies including: assistance with changing academic situations, living arrangements, questions regarding financial aid, transportation, No Contact Orders and working situations if requested and reasonably available.

Injunction against harassment can be obtained through Flagstaff courts.

Confidentiality

Confidential assistance may be obtained on campus from Campus Health Services or the Victim Witness Services on campus office.

Due to reporting responsibilities reports made to university officials are not confidential. Privacy will be vigorously respected and protected in each report of gender based violence. However, when limits on confidentiality exist due to legal or procedural standards, those limits will be reviewed with persons reporting gender violence to ensure their understanding, and where possible, their choice in decisions which drive reporting processes.
