International Week 2013

MONDAY, APRIL 1
International Food
April 1–5 WEEK LONG EVENT
Hotspot and the Dub
International food at the Hotspot all week long!

Photo Exhibit: Crossroads of Culture
April 1–5 WEEK LONG EVENT
Entries due by March 28th
Opening Reception on April 2 from 5:00-6:00 PM
Blome Hall, Bldg. 2, Conference Room
Traveling photo exhibit will be featured at various events throughout International Week. To learn more about the contest please visit the International Week website.

Global Learning Symposium - Two Sessions
3 - 4 pm Humanities and Social Sciences
4 - 5 pm Science and Business
WA Franke College of Business, Bldg. 81, Gardner Auditorium
The Global Learning Symposium is an opportunity for NAU students to share their international and intercultural research projects with the NAU community. This forum is open to the public.

Better World Film Series: End of the Line
7 - 9 pm
WA Franke College of Business, Bldg. 81, Gardner Auditorium
Come to this free showing of a documentary profiling overfishing in the world’s oceans. This information session will bring awareness and offer opportunities that are available to you abroad. This information session will come to you by: the Office of Sustainability, the NAU Green Energy Initiative and the W.A. Franke College of Business.

TUESDAY, APRIL 2
NAU Faculty and Staff Brown Bag Lunch: Immigration Basics for NAU Departments
12 - 1:30 pm
Blome Hall, Bldg. 2, Conference Room
This session is intended for NAU staff and faculty who are involved with hiring international employees and/or sponsoring international scholars and other visitors. Find out how to assist international employees and scholars to obtain the appropriate immigration status (visa). Learn basic concepts and common terms in U.S. Immigration Law.

International Potluck
6 - 7:30pm
Blome Hall, Bldg. 2, Conference Room
Bring a dish to share, and enjoy home-cooked foods from around the world!

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3
International Internship Information Session
1:30 - 2:30 pm
Blome Hall, Bldg. 2, Conference Room
Come learn about the amazing internships, research, and volunteer opportunities that are available to you abroad. This information session will come to you by: the Office of Sustainability, the NAU Green Energy Initiative and the W.A. Franke College of Business.

Education Abroad Information Session
5 - 7 pm
Blome Hall, Bldg. 2, Conference Room
Come learn about the Study Abroad programs offered at NAU! Learn about the process and how to get started.

Polynesian Experience
6 - 8pm
University Union, Hot Spot and Union Pointe
Join in the Polynesian Experience! We will have performances, activities, and dining centered around a Luau themed event. Sponsored by Housing and Residence Life and Campus Dining.

NAU International Film Series: La Petite Jerusalem
7pm
Liberal Arts, Building 18, Room 120
In association with the College of Arts and Letters.

THURSDAY, APRIL 4
Passport Day
9 am - 3 pm
Blome Hall, Bldg. 2, Conference Room
Open to all NAU students! Come get your first or renew your passport for only the US Dept of State fee! We will waive the $25 execution fee payable to NAU for this one-day event. Open to all NAU students with valid current ID. Please refer to http://travel.state.gov/passport/ for a complete list of what you will need to bring. Passport photos can be purchased onsite at this event for $7.

NAU 2013 French Film Festival: Zazie dans le metro
4 pm
Liberal Arts, Building 18, Room 120
In association with the College of Arts and Letters.

NAU 2013 French Film Festival: A Bout de souffle
7 pm
Liberal Arts, Building 18, Room 120
In association with the College of Arts and Letters.

Le Cercle Francaise
5 - 7pm
BAA, Bldg. 23, Room 115
Come practice your French and meet others interested in the French language. In association with the College of Arts and Letters.

Spanish Table “La Tertulia”
5:30 – 7pm
University Union, Union Extension, Second Floor
Come practice your Spanish and meet others interested in the Spanish language. In association with the College of Arts and Letters.

FRIDAY, APRIL 5
Misconceptions About China: A Conversation with Chinese Faculty
2:30 - 3:30 pm
Reception to follow
Fremont Room, duBois Center, Bldg. 64
International Festival
3 - 5:30 pm
DuBois Center Ballroom, Bldg. 64
World festival with dozens of country and culture displays presented by NAU international students from around the world. Enjoy world music, games, crafts and more! Grab your ‘passport’ and go global with the NAU international community. Educational and fun, and open to all ages – children and families welcome, admission FREE!

International Idol
7 - 9:30 pm
DuBois Center Ballroom, Bldg. 64
Spectacular internationally themed talent show featuring music, dance, and other cultural performances from NAU students. Prizes for contestants, all attending eligible for door prizes awarded throughout the evening. All welcome, FREE ADMISSION! Come early to get the best seat!

NAU 2013 French Film Festival: La Haine
7pm
Liberal Arts, Bldg. 18, Room 120
In association with the College of Arts and Letters.

NAU 2013 French Film Festival: Les Femmes du 6e étage
7pm
Liberal Arts, Bldg. 18, Room 120
In association with the College of Arts and Letters.

WEEKEND, APRIL 5-7
Lumberjacks 2013: World Cup Soccer
Fri: Time TBD depending on number of participants and game schedules
Sat: Time TBD; All-day tournament pool play
Sun: Time TBD; Finals
South Rec Field Complex, NAU south campus
Join the excitement of NAU’s second annual World Cup Soccer tournament! 40 teams of 11 on 11; traditional play. Sign up as an individual “free agent” or as a team of 11. Represent a country with your team name, first come first served. Even if you aren’t an NAU Rec Center Member, you are welcome to play. All are welcome to watch the fun and excitement! Registration opens March 12th and closes April 2nd.

For more information: erik.jaekel@nau.edu, 928-523-3111
Register: www.imleagues.com/nau

For more information, please visit us at: nau.edu/cie/international-week

Go Global!