

CIDA 2019 Progress Report Data: Northern Arizona University- Scottsdale Campus

Student Achievement Data:

Northern Arizona University – Scottsdale Campus. Interior Design Program. Students receive a Bachelor of Science in Interior Design.

The NAU-Scottsdale Interior Design Program is a 2NAU program and is comprised of transfer students whom have completed their Interior Design Associate of Applied Science Degree in Interior Design with our partner Maricopa County Community College District. When an 2NAU student transfers to NAU-Scottsdale it typically takes a full-time student taking 15 credits per semester two years to complete the degree program.

The following data was collected using institutional records, National Student Clearinghouse subsequent enrollment data and an alumni survey what was administered 4 months after the class of 2018 graduated.

Student Attrition and Retention

The Fall of 2017 new 2NAU transfer students at the NAU-Scottsdale campus, 93.3% were retained in the Fall of 2018.

Graduation Rates:

The Fall of 2016 new 2NAU transfer students at the NAU-Scottsdale campus, 83.3% graduated in 2 years, 91.7% graduated in 3 years.

Acceptance into Graduate Programs:

3% of students who graduated in 2018 applied for graduate school were accepted.

Job Placement Rates:

97% of students who graduated in 2018 are employed in interior design or a related profession.

Northern Arizona University, Institutional Research and Analysis:

<https://in.nau.edu/institutional-research/> Drop down menu listed "Reports".

Current university information at large. Individual college reports are transitioning and are going through an update and upgrading to a new system. Estimated time of completion Summer 2019.