Northern Arizona University- Flagstaff Mountain Campus

Student Achievement Data:
Northern Arizona University, Interior Design, Bachelors of Science in Interior Design. It typically takes a full-time student, taking approximately 15 credits per semester, four years to complete the degree program.

The following data was collected using institutional records, email, and LinkedIn. 24 out of the 33 alumni responded to the survey sent out.

Student Attrition and Retention
78.6% of the 42 students admitted in the Fall of 2019 returned in the Fall of 2020.

Graduation Rates:
Current 4-year graduation rates within the program is 54.3% as of 4/30/21.

Acceptance into Graduate Programs:
1/24 students who graduated in 2020 and responded to the survey have been accepted to graduate school. (March with a focus on Sustainability at Academy of Art University in S.F.) 2 others are working on applications to University of Utah and ASU, and 2 others are considering pursuing a Masters of Interior Architecture.

Job Placement Rates:
20 of the 24 students who graduated in 2020 and responded are employed in interior design or a related profession. 2 are actively seeking employment in the industry, and 2 are employed in unrelated fields.
Recent graduates are practicing design in the areas of: Luxury Residential, Commercial, Hospitality/Retail, Work space/Corporate, and Healthcare. We have recent graduates employed across the country, as well as abroad. Specialties include Lighting, Kitchen & Bath, and Sustainability.

Northern Arizona University, Institutional Research and Analysis:
https://in.nau.edu/institutional-research/ Drop down menu listed “Reports”.