

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

Application for Ted Mote History Study Abroad Scholarship

Deadline for receipt of all materials: 5:00 PM, April 14, 2023

The Department of History announces the Ted Mote History Study Abroad Scholarship for a student or students who are studying abroad during the Fall 2023 and/or Spring 2024 terms [excludes summer programs]. $5,000 will be awarded to one qualified student; however, if that student cannot accept the entire amount, due to issues that will adversely affect their other financial aid, a runner-up will receive the remaining balance:

This Fund shall be used for a scholarship for studying history while abroad for an undergraduate or graduate student in Department of History, with the following criteria:

- Students enrolled in a history degree program.
- Students must have sophomore, junior or senior class standing at the time they will study abroad;
- Students must be enrolled in a semester or year long study abroad program approved through NAU's Center for International Education (CIE).
- Preference will be made to students who plan to study abroad in countries where English is not the majority native language.
- Students must write a thank you letter to the donor upon notification of winning this scholarship (details will follow) and be willing to meet with him and an NAU representative after they return.

Scholarship recipients will be selected by the Department of History in coordination with the NAU Office of Student Financial Aid. The annual scholarship award will be disbursed for the semester(s) during which the student studies abroad through an NAU program. If you have any questions, please contact Leilah.Danielson@nau.edu for clarification

Other Regulations: All applicants must have been accepted by NAU and are planning to study abroad in Fall 2023, Spring 2024, or the entire 23/24 AY. This scholarship will be awarded based on merit, academic accomplishments, and to undergraduate or graduate students who are pursuing a major or minor degree in a history . Deadline to apply is Friday, April 14, 2023.
