

Aaron Kent Divine

Social Behavioral Sciences – West, Building 70, PO Box # 15016
Flagstaff, Arizona 86011

928.523.7835 (office)
Aaron.Divine@nau.edu

EDUCATION

Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, Arizona:

Master of Science in Forestry, Wildland Recreation Impact Monitoring Emphasis
Bachelor of Science in Parks and Recreation Management, Outdoor Leadership Emphasis

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, AZ:

Faculty-Senior Lecturer of Parks and Recreation Management: September 2007 – present

Responsibilities – Serve as the primary Outdoor Education & Leadership (OEL) emphasis lecturer as well as instruct other PRM core curriculum courses, both on-line and in-person, as appointed.

Highlights – 2017 Received NAU President’s Award for Excellence in Curricular Innovation for continued changes and updates to the OEL Block semester; 2016 Received College of Social Behavioral Sciences Teaching Innovation Award for collaborating to update the OEL curriculum into a block format; 2013 Elected by Geography, Planning, and Recreation Department peers as attaining Exemplary Merit Faculty status; 2010/2011 Recognized by GPR Dept. as the Outstanding Educator of the Year.

Research Associate, Department of Geography, Planning, and Recreation: February 2000 – present

Responsibilities – Collaborate with university faculty, land management agencies, various stakeholders and special interest groups in the development and implementation of human impact inventory and monitoring systems to assess use patterns and sustainability of recreational activities in wildland environments.

Academic Advisor & Program Coordinator, Distance Learning: July 2006 – September 2007

Adjunct Instructor, Parks and Recreation Management Program: May 2000 – May 2007

Graduate Assistant, Trips & Classes Manager, NAU Outdoors: August 2000 – January 2001

National Outdoor Leadership School, Lander, WY and Palmer, AK:

Senior Field Instructor and Course Leader: June 2000 – present (seasonal)

Equipment Assistant and Logistical Support Staff: April 1998 – October 1999

Highlights – 2014 Recipient of AK Faculty Merit Award for teaching/service excellence (AK Mtn Instructor Course and AK23 Prime Mountaineering); 2013 Recipient of AK Faculty Merit Award for teaching/service excellence (AK Mtn Seminar & Expedition Denali); 2011 co-led NOLS alumni course on Denali (Muldrow Glacier route) - receiving the Denali Pro-Pin Award from National Park Service for assisting with medical evacuation of ill Russian climber at Browne Tower and nominated for Mislow-Swanson Denali Pro Award <http://www.nps.gov/dena/planyourvisit/upload/2011-Summary-2.pdf>; 2004 recipient of AK Faculty Merit Award for serving as primary caregiver during military-assisted medical evacuation in Wrangell-St. Elias National Park; 2003 Denali Pro-Pin Award recipient for utilizing clean climbing practices within Denali National Park during initial testing of Clean Mountain Can regulations. 1998/1999 co-founded the AK Sustainability Garden Project which by the 2nd year produced over 800 pounds of locally sourced vegetables to be consumed by seasonal faculty, staff and students.

National Park Service, Grand Canyon, AZ:

Biological / Recreation Science Technician: April 2008 – present (seasonal)

Responsibilities – Perform interdisciplinary data collection (recreational, natural, cultural, and socioeconomic) in support of backcountry and river resource monitoring through the Grand Canyon Division of Science and Resource Management.

Alaska Mountaineering School, Talkeetna, AK:

Assistant Mountain Guide and Field Instructor: June 2005 – present (seasonal)

City of Flagstaff Parks and Recreation Department, Flagstaff, AZ:

Assistant Adventure Program Coordinator: April 1997 – January 1998

CERTIFICATIONS, SKILLS and TRAINING

Wilderness First Responder, Wilderness Medical Institute of NOLS
American Heart Association Healthcare Provider CPR
American Avalanche Association Certification levels I and II
Leave No Trace Master Educator Course Lead Instructor
Wilderness Education Association (WEA) National Standard Program Instructor
Society of Park and Recreation Educators, Faculty Mentoring Program Participant

References available upon request