

UNIVERSITY LEADERSHIP PROGRAM APPLICATION / NOMINATION FORM

Northern Arizona University is inviting faculty and staff to participate in the 2021-2022 University Leadership Program. The program kicks off in September and all sessions will be held one Friday each month through May. Participants must commit time for preparation in addition to their commitment to attending each session.

There may be changes to the program during year based the impact of COVID. We acknowledge both the importance of leadership development during these unique times, the responsibility to model good stewardship of our limited resources, and the need to keep everyone safe. We will only be accepting 20 participants for this cohort and will be adhering to all CDC guidelines for physical distancing and may include a combination of safe face to face activities and/or hybrid/virtual content delivery and participation. We ask that all accepted into this years' cohort remain flexible as the CDC guidelines are updated and the options we have at NAU change over time.
