

Peer Jacks Mentoring

Student Affairs Mentoring Peer Jacks Graduate Assistant - Job Description 2022-2023

Northern Arizona University's Student Affairs Mentoring Programs are committed to student success and provide a welcoming campus community for all students. Program staff offer support for students during a time of personal growth and transition. Topics can focus on classroom engagement, campus resources, or community involvement. Mentoring also encourages behaviors that support academic success, self-discovery and personal development. These programs help students gain skills that provide a foundation for success while building supportive relationships with peers and staff.

The Peer Jacks Mentoring program offers 1-on-1 peer mentoring to first-year students and exposure to NAU resources. The program provides a peer network to assist in the transition to college. Peer Jacks also hosts educational and social opportunities that support a path to academic success. Through developing self-direction and promoting learning beyond the classroom, we empower students to achieve autonomy while completing their degree.

Program Goals
