

Louis H. and Betty J. Quayle Scholarship Application Instructions

2021-2022 ACADEMIC YEAR APPLICATION DEADLINE: January 29, 2021

Louis H. & Betty J. Quayle Scholarship

Endowed in 2006, the Quayle Scholarship provides significant funding to support outstanding NAU graduate students who are members of a federally-recognized Native American nation or tribe.

Amount: up to $4000 per semester

Criteria:

- Applicants must be part of a Native American Tribe or Nation and must provide a copy of tribal enrollment document (e.g. Certificate of Indian Blood, enrollment card) with the application
- Academic experience, time to degree, community service, extracurricular activities, financial need, and professionalism of application will all be considered
- Applicant must be enrolled full or part time for the 2021-2022 academic year

Please read and follow all instructions carefully.

- Fill in all fields on the application form. Type N/A where not applicable. Incomplete applications may not be considered.
- All communications regarding this scholarship will go to your NAU student email.
- All admitted NAU students have both an NAU ID number (a seven or eight digit number with only numbers) and an NAU student email address (typically your initials often followed by one to four numbers). Both of these must be included on your application where indicated.
- If you are graduating prior to the Fall 2021 semester, you are not eligible for this scholarship.
- This scholarship is available only to students who will be enrolled in classes full time or part time for the Fall 2021 and/or Spring 2022 semesters. Awards can only be disbursed for one or both of these semesters.
- All applications require the completion of an online application form.
- All applications require a personal statement that will be uploaded as a PDF by the applicant.
- All applications require a letter of recommendation that will be uploaded as a PDF by the applicant.
- All Quayle Scholarship applicants must be members of federally-recognized Native American tribes or nations, and applications must include a copy of a tribal enrollment document (e.g., CIB, enrollment card), which is to be uploaded as a PDF by the applicant.
- Please contact GradAwards@nau.edu with any questions regarding this scholarship.
- Award decisions will be communicated to all applicants no later than March 26th, 2021, to give scholarship recipients time to make plans to attend the Graduate College Virtual Awards Ceremony on April 20, 2021 (3:00-5:00 pm).

Checklist for application submission:

- Completed Application Form
- Additional Information & Personal Statement (details below)
- Tribal enrollment document (e.g., CIB, Certificate of Indian Blood, enrollment card)
