1 ESTIMATE COSTS

To help plan your budget, estimate your Cost of Attendance (COA) at nau.edu/tuition.

Your COA is also used to determine how much financial aid you may receive and includes:

- tuition and fees
- transportation
- housing and meals
- personal costs
- books and supplies
LIVE IN THE WEST? GET REDUCED TUITION.

Under the Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE), eligible students from 14 qualifying states, one US territory, and one commonwealth pay a reduced tuition that is about 40 percent less than NAU’s out-of-state tuition. Learn more at nau.edu/wue.

2 APPLY TO NAU
• Apply to the university as early as possible at nau.edu/transfer2022.
• You do not have to wait for an admission offer to complete and submit your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) using NAU school code 001082.
• To formally receive financial assistance, you need to be offered admission as an undergraduate degree-seeking student.

3 REQUEST A FEDERAL STUDENT AID ID
• Before you begin your FAFSA, create an FSA ID at fsaid.ed.gov. Your FSA ID serves as your electronic signature, and it’s the fastest way to sign your FAFSA application. You and your parent (if dependent) will each need a separate FSA ID.

4 COMPLETE YOUR FAFSA
• Complete your FAFSA online at fafsa.gov. You should file a new FAFSA each year when it becomes available on Oct. 1.

WHAT IS THE FAFSA?
The Free Application for Federal Student Aid is the most important step in planning and paying for college expenses. Your FAFSA determines how much aid you can receive, as well as your Expected Family Contribution, and you’ll automatically be considered for certain federal and institutional grants. Be sure to list Northern Arizona University (code 001082) on your FAFSA.
• Students filing their FAFSA for the 2022–23 school year should use their 2020 tax information. Learn more about the process at fafsa.gov.

HOW MUCH AID CAN I RECEIVE?
You may receive financial aid up to your Cost of Attendance (COA), however need-based aid is limited based on your Expected Family Contribution (EFC). The amount of need-based aid you may receive is the difference between your COA and EFC.
Factors considered in calculating your EFC include: your family’s income, assets, size, and the number of family members who will attend college.
THE FAFSA OPENS

OCT. 1

AND NAU’S PRIORITY FILING DATE FOR TRANSFER AND RETURNING STUDENTS IS FEB 1.

Submitting your FAFSA by this date increases your chances for need-based state grant funding.
OUR PLEDGE TO YOU

We guarantee the same tuition rate for four years—helping you invest in your future and allowing you to predict your future financial needs today.
5 APPLY FOR SCHOLARSHIPS

- Scholarships are available from private donors, academic departments, and the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid, and many are renewable each year. Some have specific requirements or conditions that must be met, so be sure to check eligibility criteria for each scholarship before you apply.

There are two general scholarship applications.
- The Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid application opens mid-January and closes March 1. nau.academicworks.com
- The NAU Foundation’s scholarship application is open December through January. naufoundation.academicworks.com

Search a complete list of scholarships at nau.edu/scholarships. You can also research opportunities in your community, as many civic clubs and organizations offer scholarships.

6 REVIEW AND ACCEPT YOUR FINANCIAL AID OFFER

Once we receive your FAFSA, we’ll send information about your eligibility for federal and/or institutional aid. Financial Aid offers are sent beginning in the late fall for the following fall semester and will include information about awarded grants, scholarships and loans. You can choose to accept all of your loans or only the amount best suited to your financial needs.

Financial aid information is time-sensitive, so be sure to respond promptly to any requests from the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid.
