3. When you are ready to test your knowledge on a specific subject, select the topic you want to be quizzed on from the Objective pulldown menu on the left, underneath Show All and Show What I Need to Study. Then click on Quiz Me in the top right corner to begin.

The screenshot shows the top navigation area with two buttons: "Show All" and "Show What I Need to Study". Below them is a pulldown menu for "All Objectives" with a red circle around the dropdown arrow. The menu is open, showing a list of objectives: "All Objectives", "Find the perimeter and area of rectangles and squares.", "Find the perimeter and area of composite shapes.", "Solve application problems.", "R1.2.1", and "R1.2.7". To the right, there is a dark header bar with user, power, and help icons. Below that, a text prompt says "Click here to take the quiz" with a red arrow pointing to a "Quiz Me" button. The button is highlighted with a red box and has the text "Quiz yourself to prove mastery" below it. A "Legend" link and a help icon are also visible.

4. Once the quiz pops up, click on "I am ready to start" in the bottom right corner to begin.

The screenshot shows a browser window titled "Take a Test - Tester One Placement - Google Chrome". The address bar shows the URL: <https://www.mathxl.com/Student/PlayerTest.aspx?quizme=1&chapterId=1&back=Overview.aspx%3fchapterId%3d1%26sectionId%3d2%2>. The page has a green header with the date and time "6/21/16 4:54 PM". The main heading is "Are you ready to start?" with a "Legend" link. Below the heading, the quiz details are: Name: "Quiz Me: R1.2-1 Find the perimeter and area of rectangles and squares.", Questions: "4", and Required for Study Plan Mastery: "100%". There is a "Reminders" section with two items: "# You have started this quiz me 0 of unlimited times." and "? View a tutorial on how to enter your answers before starting." A warning icon and text state: "This quiz me has a Save For Later option. You must answer questions in order. You will not be able to go back to previously viewed questions. Complete each question before clicking Next or Save for Later." At the bottom right, there are two buttons: "Cancel" and "I am ready to start", with the latter highlighted by a red box.
