

Department of Educational Psychology

Student Application for Professional Development Funding

Application Due Dates are October 1 and February 1 of Each Academic Year
(Funding preference will be given to those students who are presenting at conferences)

Student Professional Development Funding is available to admitted and currently enrolled graduate students in the Department of Educational Psychology programs, contingent upon the availability of funds.

A student may be eligible for expenses related to conference or training related travel expenses up to $200.00 during an academic year. Students are also encouraged to seek other sources of funding through their place of work (e.g., school district); Graduate Student Organization (<http://nau.edu/Student-Orgs/Graduate-Student-Government/Funding-Opportunities/>); COE Dean's Graduate Research/Travel Grant Program Application (<https://nau.edu/coe/student-resources/travel-and-research-grants/>).

Submit applications to: Educational Psychology Department; EPS@nau.edu. Only completed applications along with required documentation (1. Conference/training brochure; 2. Proof of acceptance for presentations/posters; 3. Letter of support from an EPS faculty member or EPS faculty advisor) will be reviewed. EPS Faculty/Advisor letters of support can be emailed to EPS@nau.edu. All travel must be completed by the end of a fiscal year (June 30th). LATE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.
