Office of the President

On behalf of the faculty and staff of Northern Arizona University, congratulations!

A convocation is a time to reflect on and celebrate your unique contributions and accomplishments. I hope you feel a deep sense of pride for the years of work it took to get here and the success you have achieved because of who you are.

As you go forth into the world as an NAU graduate, we know you will contribute to building a more diverse, inclusive, equitable, just, and prosperous society. Equipped with the knowledge you have gained, the lessons you have learned, and the determination and resilience you have shown time and again, we are confident that you will rise to the challenges of the future and shape a better world.

Continue to give back and be a leader, approach the future with optimism and curiosity, and draw on the foundation of knowledge and experience you have built here at NAU. Through your accomplishments and actions, you will inspire others to pursue their dreams. We will be cheering for you every step of the way throughout your journey, and we hope you will remain lifelong ambassadors for NAU and stay connected to your Lumberjack family.

We are so proud of you and all that you have accomplished. Thank you for choosing NAU. Again, on behalf of the entire Lumberjack community, congratulations!

With respect,

José Luis Cruz Rivera
President

STATEMENT OF ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF DIVERSITY IN OUR COMMUNITY

Esteemed Graduates,

On this joyous day, as we celebrate your remarkable achievements, we are reminded of the diverse cultural heritage each of you contributes to our vibrant community. We observe this ceremony as a tribute to various identities within the Latin American and Indigenous diaspora, a patchwork of change, resilience, and growth.

Though predominantly reflective of the Southwest region, the stoles adorned today signify all Latin American cultures' broader pride and accomplishment. We recognize that these symbols might not fully represent each country's rich diversity and unique heritage. With profound respect, we acknowledge the individual cultural narratives present in our gathering.

As terms like Latine continue to evolve with our identities, we understand that they may not capture the full spectrum of our experiences. Still, today, they unite us in our differences as we honor the cultural wealth and academic journey you all have undertaken.

We pledge, as a community of learners and educators, to continue evolving and to represent the broad range of our collective identities more completely in the celebrations to come. We stand together and are committed to learning from and with you, as your academic ability exemplifies the strength of our communities.

As you wear the stole today, let it symbolize individual accomplishment and the collective spirit and resilience all our communities share. While we recognize it may not encompass every tradition, it is worn as a gesture of solidarity—a celebration of a region and the unity and diversity it represents.

Thank you for enriching our community with your culture, traditions, and voices. May you proudly wear your stole, and may your future shine as brightly as the cultural heritage we honor today.

With Love/Con Amor,

The Hispanic/Latine Convocation Committee

THE HISTORY OF THE SARAPE

When Cortez arrived on Mexico's shores in 1519, the Aztecs were already wearing a blanket-type garment, the sarape. The Spanish influenced the weavings by introducing the pedal loom and domesticated sheep and wool. Worn only by men, sarapes were the counterpart of the rebozos and huipiles worn by women. Sarapes were the typical garment of workers, horsemen, and townsfolk alike.

Sarapes were worn over the shoulder by aristocrats, used as a blanket by cowboys, covered walls or beds in homes, or were spread out on the ground at markets to display wares. Sarapes are exquisite works of art, each piece the result of months of work by talented weaving families.

While a recognized symbol of Mexican culture, the convocation committee selected the sarape for the sashes as a tribute to the hard work of our Hispanic students as they reach graduation. The variety of colors across the sashes is intended to honor the rich cultural diversity of our many graduates who proudly represent multiple nationalities in the larger community of NAU.

CLASS OF 2024

Congratulations and welcome to the Lumberjack Alumni family!

Did you know that NAU has over 10 alumni chapters spanning from Phoenix and Yuma in Arizona to out-of-state locations including Portland, San Diego, and Washington, D.C.? Joining an alumni chapter is free and allows you to continue your involvement in NAU traditions and celebrations of Lumberjack Pride. Alongside the ability to engage with past classmates, staying connected with your alma mater can help you expand your network, stay up-to-date with NAU activities, and invest in the next generation of Lumberjacks. As a Latina NAU Alumna myself, I can't express how valuable the network of Lumberjacks and new friendships I have found in my local Flagstaff alumni chapter have been to my personal and professional development.

Continue your NAU story and contribute to the Lumberjack legacy by getting involved with your local alumni community today!

Bekka Alvarado

HAVE YOU SEEN THE HUMMINGBIRD?

With its small size and appearance, the hummingbird is often associated with endurance and perseverance, reminding us to be adaptable and accepting of change. As the unofficial symbol for our new Hispanic/Latine initiative, the hummingbird reminds us that we are seen, we are heard, and we belong – at NAU.

Suyo Familia,
Vidal Mendoza

Your Alumni Association connects you with alumni who share your interests and your love of NAU!

Here's how:

Stay connected

- UPDATE your contact information
- JOIN your fellow Lumberjacks at alumni events near you
- ENGAGE with NAU alumni on social media; read Pine magazine and alumni newsletters

Take action

- Join a regional alumni chapter
- Access exclusive alumni benefits and services
- Utilize the power of the Lumberjack network in your career
- Share your news with other classmates: submit an alumni class note at foundationnau.org/class-notes
- Wear your NAU gear
- Talk about NAU to friends, family, and future Lumberjacks
- Make a gift—big or small—to impact student lives
- Give back as a volunteer for NAU
