

Michael J. Mellott, Ed.D.
Assistant Clinical Professor

Professional Bio

Dr. Michael Mellott is a certified School Psychologist and a Licensed Psychologist with over 17 years of experience in school settings providing in-depth psychological assessments, counseling, and consultation services to primarily Southwestern Native American populations living in rural areas of Arizona.

Licenses / Certifications

- Arizona Licensed Psychologist #3598
- Arizona Certified School Psychologist

Areas of Teaching Interest

- Psychoeducational assessment
- Child and Adolescent Counseling
- Mental Health and Special Education consultation

Areas of Research and/or Professional Interest

Dr. Mellott has research and professional interests in rural school psychology, new developments in psychoeducational assessment, child and adolescent counseling techniques, providing consultation services to educational agencies, and school-based mental health services.

Recent Presentations

Speaker, Invited speaker at D. G. Ruparel College, Mumbai, India. Topic: School Counseling in the U.S. (December, 2015)

Speaker, Invited speaker at D. G. Ruparel College, Mumbai, India. Topic: Counseling Native American Elementary School Students in the U.S. (June, 2013)

Mellott, M. J. (2010, October). Behavior Management Strategies for Students Diagnosed with Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder. A presentation for the faculty and staff at Hotevilla Bacavi Community School, Hotevilla, AZ.

Professional Memberships

- Northern Arizona Psychological Society
- National Association for School Psychologists
- Arizona Association for School Psychologists