

Patricia Young, Ed.D.

Assistant Clinical Professor

---

Professional Bio

Dr. Young has an Ed.D. in Educational Leadership and N.C.C. She teaches courses in M.Ed. School Counseling, MA CMHC, and Ed.S. in School Psychology. She holds AZ Dept. of Ed. certifications in Special Education, Elementary Education, School Counseling, Principal and Community College. She teaches primarily in the MED in School Counseling program.

Licenses / Certifications

- National Board Certified Counselor
- AZ Department of Education Certifications: Principal; Guidance Counselor; Community College-counseling/psychology; Special Education (LD); Elementary Education (K-8).

Areas of Teaching Interest

- Vocational Counseling and Career Development
- Multicultural Counseling
- Foundations of Counseling
- Foundations and Practices of School Counseling
- Practicum and Internship, School Counseling emphasis

Areas of Research and/or Professional Interest

Dr. Young has research and professional interests in multicultural education and counseling, and college and career readiness.

Recent Presentations

Young, P. M. (2015, September). College and Career Readiness for ALL Students. Multicultural Education: From pedagogy to Practice in the 21st Century. Chandler Gilbert Community College, Chandler AZ: East Valley NAACP, Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration Committee, Chandler-Gilbert Community College.

Young, P. M., & DeVoss, J. A. (2016, March). School Counselor & Administrator Collaboration to Promote College Career Readiness for All Students. AzSCA Spring 2016 Conference. We-Ko-Pa-Resort: Arizona School Counselors Association.

Recent Publications

Young, P. M. (2016). Accreditation – Making a difference in Professional School Counseling Preparation. Azsca Spring 2016 Newsletter.

Professional Memberships

- Arizona Counseling Association
- Arizona School Counselor Association
- American Counseling Association
- Association for Counselor Education and Supervision
- Association of Multicultural Counseling and Development
- National Career Development Association
- Rocky Mountain Association of College Admissions Counselors