

College of Education

Cody Goforth, EdS, NCSP

Doctoral Student
Admission Year: 2019

Professional Bio

Cody received his B.A. in Psychology from Oklahoma State University and his Master's and Education Specialist in School Psychology from the University of Montana. He then worked as a school psychologist in Salt Lake City for three years. Cody's research interests focus on substance use, assessment, and counseling outcomes. He is also interested in students with disabilities in post-secondary education.

Areas of Teaching Interest

Assessment and supervision.

Areas of Research and Clinical Interest

- Identification of harm reduction strategies employed by substance users, then comparing practices with research supported interventions
- Online development of substance use interventions
- Counseling outcomes
- Students with disabilities in post-secondary education

Recent Publications

Recent Presentations

Pepic, V., Kolodinsky, W., Aruguete, J., Winans, S., Bouffard, S., & Goforth, C. D. (2020, November 12–14). Teaching Wellness Practices to Counselors-in-Training: A Three Year Overview. WACES Conference, Tucson, AZ, United States. (Conference canceled)

Marks, L., Yosai, E., Goforth, C. D. (2020, February). Creating Early Career Connections: Cultivating Consultation Across Systems [Practitioner conversation]. National Association of School Psychologists (NASP), Baltimore, MD, United States.

Professional & Leadership activities

- Graduate Assistant, NAU Disability Resources, 2020-Present
- Faculty Liaison, NAU Combined Counseling/School Psychology Doctoral Student Organization (DSO), 2019-present.
- Graduate Assistant, NAU Combined Counseling/School Psychology Program, 2019-2020

College of Education

Cody Goforth, EdS, NCSP

Doctoral Student

Admission Year: 2019

Professional Memberships

- American Psychological Association (APA)
- Arizona Psychological Association (AzPA)
- National Association of School Psychologists (NASP)

*CV available upon direct request to student at

*Bios and CVs are updated during the Fall term of each year and may not include the most recent information